

YUNA SEO

Postdoctoral Researcher
BK21 Education and Research Group, Department of History
Kyungpook National University

Research Interests

Mongol Empire and Yuan China

Education

Ph.D. in History, Peking University, China (Sep 2018 – Jul 2024)
M.A. in History, Kyungpook National University, Korea (Mar 2014 – Aug 2016)
B.A. in History, Kyungpook National University, Korea (Mar 2009 – Feb 2014)

Publications

Dissertation

Seo, Yuna. 2024. Study of the Princesses of the Mongol-Yuan Dynasty. Ph.D. Dissertation, Peking University.

Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles (KCI)

Seo, Yuna. 2025. Yuan Jiangnan: Governance, Everyday Life, and Memory through the Yunshan Diary. Daegu Sahak.
Seo, Yuna. 2025. Princess Regent Alaqai Beki and the Political Transformation of the Ongut in the Early 13th Century. Journal of Chinese Historical Studies.
Seo, Yuna. 2024. The Ciku Lineage of the Qongirat in the Mongol Empire. Journal of Chinese Historical Studies.
Seo, Yuna. 2024. Execution of Princess Altalun. Journal of East Asian History.
Seo, Yuna. 2017. Roles of Aqa in the Mongol Empire (1206–1259). Central Asian Studies 22: 19–44.

Teaching Experience

Spring 2026 – Chungnam National University: Modern East Asian History; History and Leadership
Fall 2025 – Kyungpook National University: Introduction to History
Spring 2025 – Kyungpook National University: Early Modern Chinese History
Fall 2024 – Kwangwoon University: East Asian History through Historical Figures